Market Opportunities

Growing demand for yogurt in colostrum products for increasing shelf-life of the product is expected to create potential market opportunities in the near future. Yogurt contains various beneficial bacteria that ensure a longer shelf-life of the colostrum products. Moreover, it encourages the growth of healthy bacteria, and the presence of yogurt in colostrum also improves lactose digestion. Hence, increasing use of yogurt in colostrum products will favor the market growth of dairy nutritional and nutraceutical ingredients in the near future.
