Like many associations, we've certainly felt the effects of the pandemic. But thanks to our committed members, we are still connected and moving forward."

Chapter of The Association of Women in the Metal Industries will return to Palisades Waterfront Restaurant for its annual Industry Dinner. It's been two years since AWMI Seattle has had an in-person event. Chapter members, friends, and colleagues are looking forward to an evening out at a stunning Seattle venue enjoying exquisite NW cuisine and a great speaker.

This year's keynote speaker will be NW Edutainer Rebecca P. Murray featuring "What's in Your Dream Closet." Elizabeth Brane, AWWMI Seattle Chapter Vice President, met Murray at the Pacific Northwest Aerospace Alliance (PNAA)

Women in Aerospace Conference in 2021. "Rebecca's presentation was fun, unique, and memorable. I immediately thought of her for AWWMI's Industry Dinner."

Murray, known for her ability to customize her content to delight and surprise her audiences, will provide a specially curated after-dinner presentation for the occasion. "I was excited to learn AWWMI celebrated its 40th-anniversary last year," said Murray. "I plan to honor this achievement in my presentation."

Murray will take AWWMI dinner guests through a highly interactive and fun dream inventory and goal planning experience entitled "What's in Your Dream Closet?" The presentation infuses comedy, story, and song. It also invites one of Murray's infamously sinister characters to come for a brief visit.

The evening's festivities are open to members and non-members alike. "Like many associations, we've certainly felt the effects of the pandemic," said Amanda Buzzelli, AWWMI Seattle Chapter President. "But thanks to our committed members, we are still connected and moving forward."
