

Chatham Park, in the Triangle area of NC, adds Custom Builder and More Housing Options

Wagoner Homes, a generational building company, added to the custom builder team

PITTSBORO, NC, UNITED STATES, February 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chatham Park continues to provide a variety of housing options for various lifestyles in preparation for an influx of people searching for jobs as the Triangle and Triad continue to attract major employers and gain lucrative additions to their mega sites.

"Chatham Park is pleased to welcome Wagoner Homes to our builder team, said Vanessa Jenkins, Executive Vice President of Preston Development.

"With a father-son team boasting over 4 decades of building custom homes in the Triangle, the Wagoners have established a reputation of excellence that is critical to our ongoing strategy at Chatham Park of offering floor plans that will accommodate every stage of life."

Wagoner Homes is joining the custom builder team in the second custom home section to be offered within Vineyards at Chatham Park. This new section, located near the intersection of Vine Parkway and Wendover Parkway will offer 18 additional custom home opportunities in Chatham Park.

The Vineyards at Chatham Park custom builder team is comprised of four luxury builders featuring plans that integrate seamlessly into the topography. Many plans offered by this team are inspired by Frank Lloyd Wright and include a modern prairie architecture that includes functional and flowing spaces. These homes are defined by an open first-floor concept that combines the living and dining room spaces and allows for customized niches depending on the needs of the homeowner. A minimalist approach to the finishes is typical in this style, as is entire walls of windows, allowing natural light to envelope the home.

Sales in the new custom homes section are scheduled to begin in Spring of 2022.

“We are excited to join the Chatham Park builder team”, said Jerry Wagoner, President of Wagoner Homes. “With the stellar reputation of the developer, and their foresight in creating a community that has the vision necessary to create a lasting, sustainable community, what better place to continue to build our future?”
