I am excited to attend this event after its pause for two years and have a chance to talk with the people of Grand Rapids.”

Sean Sickmund, General Manager

MyWay's General Manager, Sean Sickmund, had this to say about the show, “I am excited to attend this event after its pause for two years and have a chance to talk with the people of Grand Rapids.” Sickmund continued, “I look forward to hearing what their needs are when it comes to moving, storage, decluttering, downsizing, and home projects, and to helping people find the solutions to meet their needs.”

MyWay will be located at booth 99 next to the concession stand and staff will be on hand to explain the benefits of mobile storage and how MyWay can make your next move or home project hassle-free.

To take care of your local moving needs, let MyWay Mobile Storage make the process go smoothly. With the most affordable system for do-it-yourself moving, you won't need to bother with truck rental or if your friend's truck is available. You can move at your pace with a portable storage container and keep your belongings organized by packing each MyWay Mobile Storage container room by room. At MyWay Mobile Storage our goal is to make your moving and storage easy and affordable.

MyWay collaborates with many local realtors, moving labor, and restoration companies.

Based in Grand Rapids, Michigan, MyWay Mobile Storage is a leading franchise of moving and storage solutions with facilities in Colorado, Maryland, Michigan, Missouri, Pennsylvania, and Utah.

About Show Span, Creators of the West Michigan Home and Garden Show

ShowSpan began as the "West Michigan Sportland Boat Show" in 1946 and continued under the Production of Jack Loeks and his family. Jack's eldest son took over in the 1980s and later added Mike Wilbraham and Henri Boucher to the team. ShowSpan added the Home and Garden Show to the Boat Show and moved to the Silverdome. Now going into the 72nd year of show production, ShowSpan produces 14 Shows in Michigan and Wisconsin. Mike and Henri still manage several shows while overseeing the production of 7 shows each with teams of specialized managers and assistants, supported by an administrative team at their backs.
