

Himiway Adds To Their Range Of Long Distance E-bike Collection

Leading direct-to-consumer e-bike brand, Himiway, announces the addition of new products to their offerings in response to the demands of customers

EL MONTE, CALIFORNIA, UNITED STATES, February 23, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- The Himiway team has continued to push boundaries in the green mobility industry as the direct-to-consumer electric manufacturers recently added to their illustrious inventory with the launch of new products. The move became necessary due to the demand from customers for new solutions, as the brand continues to set the pace in the global electric bike market.

“We look forward to delighting both returning and new customers with our latest e-bike models,” says Mike, the CEO of Himiway. “Watch our free live stream announcement from anywhere in the world this October as we showcase the Softail Supreme, Multifunctional, and Premium All-Terrain E-bikes. We will be announcing four new bikes across these three categories as an extension of our mission to revolutionize the electric bike experience for riders of all ages and fitness levels.”

A recent report by Fortune Business Insights revealed that the size of the global electric bike (e-bike) market stood at $10.05 billion in 2019. The report also projected the market size to hit $10.9 billion by 2027, driven by increasing awareness of the health benefits of e-bikes as well as the growth in the adoption of shared micro-mobility. Despite the amazing figures from the industry amidst the emergence of brands and products across the globe, many e-bike and
