

The lifetime antique collection of David and Marlene Howard will be sold March 19th, online and live in Douglass, Kansas

Many of the items are rare and desirable glass pieces. The sale will be held by Woody Auction, in their auction hall, starting promptly at 9:30 am Central time.

DOUGLASS, KS, UNITED STATES, February 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The lifetime single-owner collection of David and Marlene Howard of Ohio – hundreds of quality antiques gathered over many decades of dedicated searching – will come up for bid on Saturday, March 19th, at 9:30 am Central time, by Woody Auction, online and live in the Woody Auction auction hall at 130 East 3rd Street in Douglass. In all, more than 450 quality lots will be sold.

"This collection is well above average because of the care and diligence the Howards spent finding only the best items," said Jason Woody of Woody Auction. "What makes it special is its sheer breadth, and this auction barely covers half of it. The other portion, with a spotlight on children's dishes, will be featured in the coming months. That will be an online-only auction, planned for later in the year."

Mr. Woody said David and Marlene Howard were frequent attendees at Woody Auction events through the years. "They made the decision to downsize and sell their collection the way they had purchased many of the items – at public auction without reserve," Mr. Woody said. "Their quiet and unassuming demeanor could sometimes catch other buyers off guard when it came to pieces they truly wanted."

Gorgeous bowl marked R.S. Prussia, 10 ½ inches in diameter with a portrait décor and a lavender and white satin finish – the only known example of a Spring Season bowl in the Carnation mold.

Two lots could easily top the $10,000 mark. One is a gorgeous bowl marked R.S. Prussia, 10 ½ inches in diameter with a portrait décor and a lavender and white satin finish – the only known example of a Spring Season bowl in the Carnation mold. The other is an incredibly nice Regina upright music box, serial #3500107, fully operational and functioning with good sound. The music box, with 22 15-inch discs, has a mahogany case, curved glass, the original Regina label, double comb and a dial selector.

Many of the items are highly desirable glass pieces. There are many quality vases, to include these:

- A signed Daum Nancy French cameo art glass vase, 15 ½ inches tall, boasting a yellow, white, orange and amethyst mottled ground, fabulous cameo carved chestnuts and enamel highlights.
- An American Brilliant Cut Glass (“ABCG”) vase in the Othello pattern by Clark, exceptionally well cut, 20 inches tall and weighing over 17 pounds, with a thick blank and huge hobstar base.
- A plated amberina art glass trumpet vase by New England, extremely rare, 9 inches in height.
