TOP Performers 2022

The day got off to a cold start as 8 different states attended the Atlanta NCEC event. There were several plays and battles throughout the day which saw the wide receivers emerge as the strongest group with the defensive backs coming in a close second.

The 2023 wide receiver Quentin Thomas proved to be the most impressive alpha male he has received as much as 10 D1 offers from schools like GA Tech Vanderbilt and Arkansas. The sun also smiled brightly on Anquon Fegans as the young defensive back won the hearts of Miami and Georgia with offers as an 8th grader and is believed to be a future 5-star player.

Standing at 6'1 and looking smooth while throwing the ball in drills, Julian Lewis, the undisputed #1 Player in the 2026 Class also made an appearance, together with the 4-star Cornerback Omillio Agard, who has been rated as one of the top 2024 players having grown by an inch since last year.
