Her trailblazing and unforgettable role on MTV's Teen Mom resurfaced last week when she learned that her daughter, Farrah Abraham made racist comments during a surprise guest appearance on Teen Mom: Family Reunion. That episode shows Abraham acting erratic and called one of the guests "Ghetto" during a verbal exchange.

A source said that after learning of what her daughter said, Danielsen had some strong word to say about this. "I have something to say, A lot to say! Mental health is real and there has to be something mental going on with Ferrah. I am appalled, just disgusted with those words coming out of her mouth. How dirty! She was raised better - believe it or not. I know... I'm her mom." Deborah reflects on the show, "when we were on Teen Mom it was the same thing: ridiculous outbursts, and fights. I thought that she had grown up, I guess not." Debra supports the moms on the MTV show Teen Mom Family Reunion series and understands their struggles.
