Prior to joining Ain & Bank, Cheatham worked in family law in Tunisia and the European offices of Giambrone & Partners LLP. She also worked last year at a law firm in Nashville where she helped resolve complex financial disputes arising from offshore trusts, family trusts, mixed-asset business holdings and entertainment contracts in the multibillion-dollar country music industry.

This will be a unique role for our firm. Annah will be a tremendous asset to our knowledge base while she sits for the bar.”

managing partner of Ain & Bank*

At Ain & Bank, Cheatham will help the firm with her wealth of international knowledge and assisting with international jurisdictional challenges.

“This will be a unique role for our firm,” said Natalia Wilson, managing partner with Ain & Bank. “Annah will be a tremendous asset to our knowledge base while she sits for the bar.” Cheatham is experienced in handling cases with high net worth and ultra-high net worth clients dealing with an emphasis on complex financial relief and custody disputes. Her designation as Special Counsel is pending with the D.C. Bar.

Ain & Bank is one of the top family practice firms in the country specializing in divorce, property division, custody and support issues, business evaluation, business succession, related tax issues, and integrated solutions for wealth management and preservation. The firm also serves as general and civil litigation counsel to high net-worth clients and their businesses.
