Many young parents postponed in-person daycare for their kids during the Pandemic. Now, however, as many are returning to in-person work, they are looking for best-in-class daycares near them”

Persons who want to read more can visit the updated page at <https://www.learnandplaymontessori.com/daycare/>. That page explains how we operate as a daycare center and emphasizes that – where possible – we try to make every experience a learning experience. Where age-appropriate, we inculcate Montessori values into our training system. Montessori is all about having the child participate in his or her learning experience. Maria Montessori understood that children inherently want to learn; the goal of the teacher or daycare provider is to “get out the way,” so to speak, and help the child experience learning at their own pace. From the very beginning of the daycare experience, we try to instill a lifetime “love of learning.” Passionate learners start early and thus lay the groundwork for learning passion later in life.

WORKING PARENTS NEED DAYCARE IN FREMONT, DUBLIN, AND DANVILLE

Many Bay Area parents are two-income households. Both Mom and Dad work. Partners of all shapes and sizes have all sorts of families in the Bay Area! We embrace that diversity and recognize that however a “family” is arranged, the need for daycare can be immense. Parents want daycare that offers convenient hours, plus a daycare program that is embedded in a philosophy of learning. By combining wonderful hours, great locations in Fremont, Danville, and Dublin, and a Montessori-method, our daycare programs become best-in-class. Interested parents or guardians are encouraged to call us, schedule a school tour, and have a consultation on what will be the best daycare for their child or children.
