

Pine Meadow Ranch Center for Arts and Agriculture Issues Call for Proposals for 2022 Quilt Garden

Central Oregon quilt makers, artists and pattern designers—apply by March 31

SISTERS, OREGON, USA, February 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pine Meadow Ranch Center for Arts and Agriculture \(PMRCAA\), a working ranch in Sisters, Oregon focused on arts, agricultural and ecological projects, is seeking proposals for its 2022 Quilt Garden. The project includes a signature garden space at the ranch that is inspired by a quilt design, along with the creation of a quilt fashioned to reflect the garden space. Proposals are sought from Central Oregon quilt makers, artists and/or designers experienced with quilt patterns.

Proposals are due March 31, 2022 and the selection will be made the first week of April. The garden at Pine Meadow Ranch will be a 10-foot-by-10-foot bed as a “Quilt Block Design” or “Quilt Design” out of plants and flowers. Planting for this growing season will begin in early April. Implementation of the garden space quilt pattern will be led by the PMRCAA’s Garden Manager, and the accompanying quilt is to be completed in time for display at the 2022 Sisters Outdoor Quilt Show, the world’s largest outdoor quilt show, set for July 9.

The Quilt Garden program will be a permanent asset at PMRCAA, and the plantings within the bed will be changed annually for new artists. Every year, signage with the title and designer’s name will be placed near the bed, along with other celebratory and programming activities. More outreach will also be done throughout the season to highlight the chosen designer, and the finalist will receive a stipend of $750. This will be the second annual Quilt Garden. The inaugural garden was launched in 2021 to honor the nationally recognized quilting tradition celebrated in Sisters.

About Pine Meadow Ranch Center for Arts and Agriculture

Pine Meadow Ranch Center for Arts and Agriculture (PMRCAA) is located on the historic Pine Meadow Ranch, a 260-acre working ranch in Sisters, Oregon at the base of the Cascade Mountains. The vision of PMRCAA is to connect sustainable agriculture, conservation arts and sciences with traditional and contemporary crafts and skills integral to ranching life. Located in the traditional territory of the Wasco, Warm Springs, and Paiute peoples, work at the ranch is grounded in a strong sense of place and community, and the diversity and multiple perspectives of the people that call our region home are deeply valued. Today, Pine Meadow Ranch operates as a program of the Sisters-based Roundhouse Foundation, and it continues to operate as a working ranch.
