

EDRM Announces Venio Systems, LLC as Newest Trusted Partner

MINNEAPOLIS, MN, USA, February 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Setting the global standards for e-discovery, the Electronic Discovery Reference Model (EDRM) is pleased to announce Venio Systems, LLC, the fastest growing global leader in delivering best-in-class eDiscovery technology, has joined EDRM as a Preserver Trusted Partner.

eDiscovery technology plays a central role in organizations as they strive to rebound from the current global crisis to be more cohesive, more stable and more productive entities. Robust eDiscovery technology, supported by expertise and services, helps organizations respond to litigation, compliance and investigation demands. In a new era of remote work at scale, organizations need to securely manage information, protect confidential and privileged access and collaborate effectively to be efficient and productive, and adhere to the increasingly complex demands of security and data privacy frameworks.

At Venio, we are committed to serving the legal community through education, software and support."

"At Venio, we are committed to serving the legal community through education, software and support," says Ankur Agarwal, vice president of products at Venio. "We believe that EDRM, with its rich ecosystem of partners and members, is one of the best avenues to reach all legal professionals. Whether you are looking for the latest in eDiscovery or trying to learn something new in byte sized information, Venio is here to help with our world-class software and vast collection of readily available media

Venio's monthly software releases and content-filled newsletters, blog posts and videos empower you to be more productive and serve your internal and external customers efficiently.

Among the EDRM opportunities and resources available to partners like Venio Systems, are the ability to connect, network and contribute via EDRM projects and events, share their service and product offerings, and enhance brand awareness to a global community. The EDRM community of knowledgeable, multidisciplinary professionals is building resources to enhance eDiscovery, privacy, security, and information governance frameworks, processes and standards.

"Our trusted EDRM partner, Venio Systems, was the go-to for processing in eDiscovery's earlier days, and now they have a full end-to-end offering," says Mary Mack, CEO and chief legal technologist at EDRM. "We are looking forward to sharing their advances with our community."

This partnership provides Venio Systems with access to the EDRM community, comprised of 33% corporations, 30% law firms, 23% software and service providers, 12% governments, and the remaining 2% a mix of educators, students, judges and media spanning 136 countries across six continents.
