Ceramic Sanitary Ware Market Global Industry Sales, Revenue, Price Trends and More

PORTLAND, OR, UNITED STATES,
February 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/

-- Rise in construction of malls and offices, surge in spending on home remodeling, and renovation of residential and non-residential bathrooms and toilets have boosted the growth of the global ceramic sanitary ware market.

However, decrease in new construction activities in developed nations hinders the market growth. On the contrary, infrastructural development in African nations is expected to open new opportunities for the market players in the future.

The global ceramic sanitary ware market was valued at $36,544.8 million in 2020, and is projected to reach $76,956.6 million by 2030, registering a CAGR of 7.5% from 2021 to 2030. Ceramic sanitary wares include a variety of equipment and fixtures that are used for sanitary and internal plumbing applications. Water closets, bath tubs, basins, and sinks are gaining high traction in the ceramic sanitary ware industry.

The global ceramic sanitary ware market includes an in-depth analysis of the prime market players such as Geberit AG, Kohler Co., Toto Ltd., Lixil Corporation, Roca Sanitario S.A., Villeroy & Boch AG, R.A.K. Ceramics, Duravit AG, Duratex S.A., and HSIL Ltd.

Covid-19 scenario:

The Covid-19 outbreak negatively affected the market due to strict lockdown measures and delay in manufacturing and production of ceramic sanitary ware that are used in residential and commercial spaces.

The construction of new building and commercial spaces was postponed during the first phase of the pandemic. This, in turn, decreased the demand for ceramic sanitary ware.

However, the market would get back on track post-pandemic as the market players resume daily operations at their full-scale capacity.

The report segments the global ceramic sanitary ware market on the basis of product type, sales channel, end user, and region.
