The Eternals of Shiva NFT by artist Nehha Rajpal

This Shiva NFT is arguably the most expensive listed digital art on Indian NFT platform. Nehha has earlier successfully sold several NFTs in her niche devotional genre which got resold at higher price by the NFT collectors.

Uniqueness of this NFT launch is that entire intellectual property rights (IPR) of the art including song, visual along with raw data files and unmixed tracks will be transferred to the NFT collector who can further exploit the NFT as deemed fit. Few examples of such IPR transfer is distribution on music platforms, using visuals for merchandise Tshirts, use in television series, jingles etc and earnings from it.

NFT collectors can head to <http://bit.ly/bestshivanft> or on <http://nft.wazirx.org> platform to buy the NFT and can be a great collection for an ardent Shiva devotee.
