NASHVILLE, TN, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nashville-based rock trio GOODING has announced its new album, 99 Rebellions, set to be released on March 18, 2022. Throughout the nine tracks featured, the band recreates their live shows with ripping guitar solos, massive drum sounds, three-part-harmonies, and soaring operatic vocals. The album will be available on all digital music platforms.

In support of the new album, GOODING released their new rock anthem "Don't Look Back" on February 11, followed by the anthemic "World Is Gonna Break" on February 25. Their next single "Texas Rose" will be released on March 11.

"So thrilled to get 99 Rebellions out into the world on March 18. This record has us back on all live instruments going full blast, attempting to capture as much energy out of one room with three people as possible," said Gooding, the band's frontman and namesake.

"Many of the tracks are first takes, and unlike the last few 'pandemic era' records, there are no samples and no keyboards whatsoever. This is as close to experiencing the band live as we've
