

Amplifei International and Üforia Science Unite with LaCore Enterprises Launching Unrivaled Innovation in Nutrigenomics

LaCore Enterprises Sees Huge Value In Unifying Amplifei International & Uforia Sciences With One Common Goal Nutrigenomics Research & Delivery

DESTIN, FLORIDA, USA, March 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Amplifei international and Üforia Science unify to establish unmatched dominance with an expanded and diverse portfolio of thoughtful, natural offerings inspired by advancements in epigenetics and Nutrigenomics research and discovery.

Kim Ressler, CEO of Üforia Science, says, "This is the perfect time to bring Laura and Robert Oblon's executive team and field leadership into the Üforia Science fold. Just as Üforia Science is poised to break health and industry barriers, we are propelled by Amplifei's momentum and powerful products. The world is ready for Üforia's hyper-personalized DNA-based solutions, and with Amplifei on board, we are ready to take on the world."

"After years of watching Terry LaCore build his visionary group of companies, made up of the who's who of our profession, we are profoundly blessed to find the right fit taking us all to the next level," says Robert Oblon, CEO of Amplifei. "The joining of our companies is a marriage made in Heaven ... The cellular health prowess of Amplifei could not be a better fit for the revolutionary genius of Üforia Science's one-of-a-kind, DNA-based, customized nutrition."

In a combined statement, Ressler and Oblon say, "We share a dedication to driving human potential for generational healthspan and wealthspan and believe in creating legacies of trust, opportunity, and responsive collaboration. Combining our seasoned leadership teams uniquely positions us to drive long-term, sustainable growth for humanity's highest good."

In a second, combined statement, Eric Nepute, DC, and Andi Rainville, RN, clinical representatives of Amplifei and Üforia Science (respectively), say, "In the 20-plus years we've
