

Pearls On A String: Love Songs Volume I

Poet speaks the language of love and yearning through a collection of poems

TUCSON, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, March 3, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Always having the affinity for poems and love for penning immaculate short stories, Rea - Silvia Costin has once again graced the poetry scene by publishing her work Pearls On A String: Love Songs Volume I. A long list of achievements for her poetry works such as having won the Best Poems and Poets of 2001, 2002, 2003, and 2005, The Theatre of the Mind, and The Celebration of Honors, as well as Who's Who in Poetry 2004 and 2005 — backs her innate skill as an exalted poet of her generation. Published by Authors Press, Costin's Pearls On A String: Love Songs Volume 1 will be exhibited at the 2022 Tucson Festival of Books this coming March 12-13, 2022 in Tucson, Arizona.

A great source of outlet in letting out what she feels, feelings that her mouth cannot and fails to utter to others, along with the vision to share with others her philosophy and own understanding of life, and to give intimate testimony of her undeniable faith in God, best depicts what poetry means to Costin. Aside from her delicate and devoted way of speaking through her readers with her words and thoughts, Costin also has the rare ability to connect with readers through her immense love for poetry and life itself. She was able to let it out through this volume of her struggles as she ventured into life, and the lessons she learned after going through those hardships. After being trampled with the unexpected need to write with such force that left her no choice but
