Amb. Dominic is an easy going and go-getter individual who strikes rapport with many people, be it in his immediate community or in foreign lands. He is a graduate of Utalii College and holds a diploma in theology from Landmark Theological Seminary College TX.

He is passionate about making the lives of the less privileged in the community better and this gives him satisfaction. Amb. Dominic organizes humanitarian expeditions as well as vocational expeditions through his company. The company is also the gateway to experiencing East Africa's culture, wildlife, her flora and fauna.

His business connections come in handy when he receives visits from various parts of the world who wish to sample the beauty and hospitality of his home country. This has given him a rich experience of over a decade guiding, planning and doing travel and tours consultancy to clients visiting East Africa.

Amb. Dominic is also a passionate philanthropist, a calling that takes him deep in the villages of Kenya and beyond. Amb. Dominic is the founder president of VOICE FOR THE VOICELESS. THE VOICE is a humanitarian arm that champions for the needy in the society. Well aware that the region has one of the highest poverty rates, Dominic's interventions helps provide basic needs to the needy in society. He also rescues those in critical need of medication and those who are under threat by neighbors as a result of domestic and land disputes. The VOICE for the VOICELESS creates awareness, advocates, helps empowers the needy in remote villages in East Africa.

He has a rapport with media personalities based in the region with whom they are able to highlight cases that need government intervention.

For the past eight years Amb. Dominic has been able to help over 2000 women and youth by training them on sustainable development projects. The projects include vegetable tower gardens, five chicken one family, and two goats per family.
