

HackerNoon "Startups of Year" Crowns 1,382 Emerging Businesses to Watch in 2022

HackerNoon, the technology publishing company, in partnership with Brex, ByBit, and Blockster released the results of 2021-2022 Startup of the Year Awards.

EDWARDS, COLORADO, USA, March 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- HackerNoon, the technology publishing company, announced the results of their first ever Startups of the Year Awards, celebrating the businesses across the globe that not only survived but also thrived through the pandemic. Startups of the Year awards were hosted on HackerNoon's Voting Software in partnership with Brex, ByBit, and Blockster.

Since June 26, 2021, 44,427 startups were nominated across 16 different regions of the world, and the community in total gave 234,344 votes. This unique social data shows where people think startups are growing, in addition to which startup is the most trending in every major city in the world. As part of the open data movement, HackerNoon open sourced all the voting data as "/where-startups-trend" on GitHub.

Voting by location model allowed us to explore where startups trend and help thousands of them grow their internet reputation as one of the fastest growing businesses within their respective cities.”

Founder/CEO*

The 1382 winners all received perks from sponsors, like 3,000 Brex Points, and a tech company news page from HackerNoon. These pages include business overviews (such as head count, founding year, bio, social links, and domain ranking) coupled with dynamic updates every time the company is mentioned in HackerNoon stories or relevant headlines around the web.

The winners have been announced on Valentine's day (symbolically, to show the love to the best and brightest according to the internet).

Around the internet here's what winners had to say about the Startups of the Year.

"Zetl is proud to announce that we've won HackerNoon's 2021 Startups of the Year! Last year marked an incredible year for us. Thank you to everyone, especially our customers, partners and investors, who have helped us along in our journey." - Zetl, winner of Wan Chai, East Asia

"Happy Valentine's Day, dear OBOTers!

We have won @hackernoon's Startups of the Year award! Thank you all for your support and LOVE! It's a great honor to be among so many inspiring start-ups, to the best year ahead!" - Obortech, winner of Tallin, Estonia

"This is a testament to both our supportive community, and hard-working team. Can't wait to share everything else we have in store...It's going to be a good year" - CENNZnet, the winner in Auckland, New Zealand

The complete list of the winners can be found in this extensive series on HackerNoon, but here is the peak of the most popular ones, according to the number of votes
