up for the walk, create a team and begin fundraising. While the event is in-person this year, there will be a virtual option for those who wish to participate in the program and connect with the community from their own home or neighborhood. The Komen MORE THAN PINK Walk brings together a community of hope and compassion to raise funds to save lives from breast cancer. Funds raised support Komen's advocacy, research investments and support of people facing breast cancer today, ensuring everyone can get the care they need to live.

When: Saturday, March 5, 2022: 7:00am: On-site Check-in Opens

Where: Cranes Roost Park, 274 Cranes Roost Blvd, Altamonte Springs, FL

“After two years apart, we are excited to see everyone join together as one community,” said Tia Isoff-Celestin, Development Director, Susan G. Komen, Florida. “The health and safety of our community are, and always have been, our top priorities. After consulting with local health officials, we are confident we can once again gather together as one community of hope and compassion, united by a desire to save lives from breast cancer.”

“While we’re excited to see our breast cancer community again, it’s not JUST about physically being together, it’s about the impact every one of us can make when we walk one more step and raise one more dollar,” said Sean Gross, State Executive Director, Susan G. Komen, Florida. “Every one of us, no matter who we are or where we live, deserves a chance at living a long and healthy life. Together, we will make certain that no one faces breast cancer alone.”

*Media welcome to attend in-person event and/or community virtual events. Interviews available local Susan G. Komen team as well as MORE THAN PINK Walk participants, including survivors, local company sponsors and more.
