TUCSON, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, March 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Turning her grief of losing her husband of 44 years to both Parkinson's disease and cancer into words of hope and encouragement, Kay E. Thomson is set to exhibit her heart-tugging book Finding JOY In the Midst of Grief: Continuing in God's Loving Grip Through Loss of a Loved One at the 2022 Tucson Festival of Books in the University of Arizona — hoping for readers to understand how God was with her throughout her journey of mourning and healing. The book plies through the author's daily life and how the sense of normality does not cover up the pain of losing a loved one.

Finding JOY in the Midst of Grief is the author's true account of two years of care for her husband during his illness, along with all the spirals as the author walks through the tunnel of grief while dealing with the loss of her husband. Amidst the pain and loss, the author highlights how her only constant source of comfort was her faith in God. She shares the difficulties of living alone and learning how to be independent in places and paths where she had never found herself alone before, she takes us on a short journey of how she found solace in being alone. Thomson writes "He opens our hands and hearts to receive what He has for those of us who remain until our own journey comes to an end. You will learn that the will of God will never take you where the grace of God will not protect you."

“He opens our hands and hearts to receive what He has for those of us who remain until our own journey comes to an end..”
