With its Tokenizer, Exchange, Ethereum, and Polygon Blockchains, UFUND offers utility and security token services for businesses to access funds, and for investors to get substantial returns, trade tokens, products, and commodities.

UFUND focuses only on the transactional side of the business regardless of the business' situation and location, and if the sellers and ultimate buyers can be covered by our first-class insurers. UFUND solution removes the burdens of coverage and funding to businesses as it only analyzes transactions submitted by businesses seeking crowdfunding on the UFUND platform.

The current price per token: US$20=8.70 Matic. During the UFD Token private sales event, a 50% discount is offered, which makes the Token price at 4.35 Matic. Transaction volume per year is 2,500,000, and the time required for completing a transaction: instant to one hour.

Private token sales are live until the 8th of March 2022. The token crowd sale will begin from 9th March 2022.

Currency accepted during token sales: MATIC, BTC, ETH, ETC, LTC, DASH, ZEC, EUR, GBP, CHF, HKD & USD.

UFUND is a DeFi Crowdfunding Platform that promotes tokenization as a new solution in the supply chain finance for small businesses. By bringing together investors and business owners, the platform brings solutions to businesses and sustainable returns to investors.
