

Retired Military Chaplain Enlists the Tucson Festival of Books

TUCSON, ARIZONA, UNITED STATES, March 8, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chaplain (Colonel) (Ret ) J Jenkins' These Honored Dead: Reflections on the 20th Anniversary of 9/11 is a literary commemoration of the fallen heroes of the titular September 11 attacks. The Chaplain's work will be part of Bookmarc Alliance's featured books for the Tucson Festival of Books slated for March 12-13 at the University of Arizona campus.

From officiating the first two Memorial Services as a chaplain conducted in the Pentagon after 9/11, up to his service in Iraq on the staff of General Martin Dempsey, Chaplain Jenkins officiated at over one hundred services for fallen paratroopers. The book is a call to America to never forget the over a million fellow Americans who died for their country; and to encourage today's overworked "all-volunteer" military.

Chaplain (Colonel) (Ret.) Joel Jenkins and his wife, Donna, reside in Charlottesville, VA. Joel retired from Fort Bragg, NC in 2011, with 27 years of service. His service included active duty, along with National Guard and Army Reserves service. He also pastored churches in NC and Virginia. Highlights of his military career include officiating at the first Memorial Services in the Pentagon following 9/11.

...our nation's military heroes and veterans need to be appreciated, a strong military is justified in an evil world...”

Chaplain (Colonel) (Ret ) J Jenkins
