

March Brings 6 Live Philadelphia-Area Concert Performances from The Jazz Sanctuary

PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, UNITED STATES, March 9, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The third month of the 11th anniversary year of The Jazz Sanctuary features six live concert events, including a special event on Wednesday, March 30th with the Geographic Society of Philadelphia.

A trio from The Jazz Sanctuary – James Dell'Orefice (piano), Leon Jordan Sr. (drums), and Alan Segal (bass) - will perform following the Geographic Society of Philadelphia's "Border Crossings: A Panel Discussion on Modern Trade & Business Compared with the Historic Silk Road", presented in collaboration with the Citizen Diplomacy International Philadelphia. The event is slated to begin at 6:30 p.m. at Gloria Dei (Old Swedes' Church) in Philadelphia.

Thanks to the Silk Road tea, coca, tobacco, cotton, whisky, and Marco Polo (1254–1324), earned their well-respected appreciation through the centuries. A panel of experts will talk about the old and modern Silk Road's effects on geography, trade, the Belt & Road Initiative, and cultures of the world as well as their impact on Philadelphia. Dr. Marco Airaud (Economics/Drexel University), Samuel K. Chueh (International Business/City of Philadelphia Commerce Dept), and Prof. Judy Okun, (Geography/Rowan

All events (with the exception of the March 30th performance) are free and open to the public. Voluntary donations to the venue are appreciated.

Donations to support the mission of The Jazz Sanctuary continue to be vital to the growth of the organization as they enter their second decade. The Jazz Sanctuary is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that brings jazz music free of charge to charitable organizations, community centers, and houses of worship, among others.

Since its founding in 2011, The Jazz Sanctuary has brought over 625 live performances to people throughout Philadelphia and the neighboring Pennsylvania and New Jersey suburbs. In addition, the organization brings their music to healthcare facilities, including regular performances for the Council on Brain Injury and others in the region.

Charitable events in the five-county area have served organizations such as Friendship Circle, Cradle of Hope, Ronald McDonald House, Interfaith Hospital Center of the Main Line and Council on Brain Injury and Re-Med golf outing and therapy sessions.

Funding for The Jazz Sanctuary comes from individual donors as well as sponsors, including CBIZ, Compass Ion Advisors, Philadelphia Federal Credit Union, The Big Event, Zled Lighting, LPL Financial, Quantum Think, C&N Bank and DMG Global.

Interested donors or sponsors, as well as local townships, houses of worship, community centers or other public venues interested in participating in, or hosting The Jazz Sanctuary live events, are encouraged to contact Alan Segal directly, either by phone at (215) 208-7314 or by e-mail at music@thejazzsanctuary.com.
