ABOUT Nomadz

Everyone has a favorite software, podcast or tool they use, but why? What makes each one different? Being an Amazon consultant, I have worked with countless software and agencies throughout the years. With a hands on management style, my team and I believe in using a different set of tools for every client and educating them along the way. With the Alphadex we want to inform sellers of everything that is available to them and help them choose the best options for their business.
