Women's History Month was established in 1987 and has been recognized by every U.S. president since 1995. In addition, Arizona Governor Doug Ducey has issued a Women's History Month proclamation every year since 2016.

"The Gathering of Queens believes that every month can and should be Women's History Month when we celebrate our accomplishments and set our sights on what's next," said Lexi Applequist, coordinator of the Millionaire Mastermind Academy Program. "We can't wait to share wisdom, leadership, and strategies for success with everyone who joins us."

The Millionaire Mastermind Academy expanded to Arizona nearly two years ago and has helped more than 7,000 women nationwide to grow ideas into businesses by providing them with expertise, access to capital, mentorship, and business development training. In addition, the program offers an Entrepreneur Accelerator and Real Estate Accelerator Program to help more minority women succeed in business.
