Walford Home's French Flower Buckets are back in stock in time for spring after high demand resulted in limited availability across all e-commerce platforms

CARY, NC, UNITED STATE, March 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Walford Home is re-releasing its popular line of French Flower Buckets just in time for spring! High demand during the Q4 of 2021 resulted in limited availability across all e-commerce platforms. All sites including their website, Amazon.com and Walmart.com are now fully stocked and ready for gift giving season.

"Due to incredible demand that we ran out of the French Flower Buckets, according to Lawrence Barnes, Walford Home's CEO. "But since they became available, we've seen a quick uptick in orders. We've been especially pleased with the number of customers purchasing multiple sets for use as centerpieces or decorations for special events that are being scheduled such as weddings, anniversaries, and parties."

Both beautiful and stylish, the flower vases are sold as a set of 3 or 12 and are made of .27mm galvanized steel with a vintage finish, making them sturdy and built to last. Their durable 4-point connected handles make them as functional as they are elegant. Each metal flower vase is 4.3 x 4.3 x 9 inches tall and has a unique embossed dogwood blossom.

Here's what their customers are saying: These are so dang cute. Use them on my porch, put rocks in them for weight and they hold my flowers perfectly.

These vases are exactly what I was looking for!!! They are a perfect size for centerpieces and I can't wait to see them on the tables for my party!!!

Scattered these 3 vases with wildflowers around our bbq themed wedding. Cute and understated for that “farmhouse” look. Fast shipping and good product.
