

Taking the Brain to Heart: Ankin Law partners with Brain Injury Association of Illinois

Alliance creates referral network for firm, organization to raise awareness of resources available to those with brain injuries

CHICAGO, IL, USA, March 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Ankin Law, Chicago's leading personal injury law firm, today announced a partnership with the Brain Injury Association of Illinois (BIA-IL) to enhance awareness of the legal and treatment resources available for those affected by traumatic head injuries in Illinois.

The alliance creates a robust referral network for those impacted by traumatic brain injuries (TBI) to find knowledgeable legal assistance and quality caretakers. Together, Ankin Law and BIA-IL will provide valuable resources to those that have brain injuries.

"My team works diligently to provide support, resources and legal action for those impacted by brain injuries," said Howard Ankin, founder and lead attorney at Ankin Law. "Ankin Law is honored to collaborate with Brain Injury Association of Illinois. We look forward to leading the discussion around traumatic brain injuries (TBI) and implementing actionable change with BIA-IL."

In addition to the referral network, the partnership provides Ankin Law the opportunity to reach members of the BIA-IL through conference speaking opportunities; presence at charity events such as luncheons, raffles, golf outings and conferences; branding on BIA-IL marketing materials; and enhanced exposure at the organization's annual conference.

Each year, 50,000 Americans die due to TBI and more than 250,000 people in Illinois suffer from disabilities from brain injuries. While this announcement falls during Brain Injury Awareness Month, the partnership will provide lasting, meaningful assistance for years to come.

"Brain Injury Association of Illinois is a source of hope and a breadth of resources. A partnership with Ankin Law, a Chicago firm with aligned visions and goals, just makes sense," said Philicia Deckard, executive director of BIA-IL. "Collaboration is at the heart of everything we do—a critical component in the fight against traumatic brain injuries."
