We Make Stories Come To Life Through Self Publishing

"Five Mile Charlie: A Special Pony for Carly" is a hefty dash of magical realism book that elevates beyond a simple story of farm-living to a well-crafted tale of solidarity and friendship, of dreams coming true, and of hard work, resilience, and hope.

Adams balances fun and exciting adventures with some real-life topics, making it an effective vehicle for simple messages about compassion, friendship, and inclusion.”

Gretchen Hansen from The US Review of Books

The story centers around Carly, who lives at Five Mile Farm in Oklahoma. Carly was little but strong, and she loved to work and play. Carly had a wiener dog named Okie and a Yorkie named Mollie. She also had a cat called Wally, a parrot named Annie, and a Bluetick hound from a neighboring farm visited from time to time, which she called Blue. For all the animal friends that Carly had though, the one thing missing was a pony.

Thereafter comes Queen Bee Nora, who is long, graceful and honored by all the bees. Queen Nora makes wishes come true for those who seek her out. Together with her best friend, a scout bee named Journey, Queen Nora knew of Carly's wishes, so she sent Journey off in search of a pony for the little girl. Will Queen Bee Nora and Journey succeed in making Carly's wish come true?

"A well-crafted, visually rich, fun tale in which hope, hard work, and resilience triumph. This is a must-have for little ones' bookshelves." —The Prairies Book Review.

Kimberly Adams is a practicing attorney in McAlester, Oklahoma and a Municipal Judge in Kiowa, Oklahoma. She earned a Bachelor of Science Degree from Oklahoma Wesleyan University in 1997 and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Oklahoma in 2000. The loss of her pet llama, Charlie, inspired a children's book series, starting with this first installment. Currently, Kimberly resides in rural southeast Oklahoma on her farm at Five Mile.
