Masterbatch Market Trends – Rising disposable income

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA, March 15, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

The global masterbatch Market size is expected to reach USD 16.31 Billion in 2028 and register a revenue CAGR of 4.8% over the forecast period, according to latest analysis by Emergen Research. Steady market revenue growth can be attributed to rising demand for masterbatch in production of wires for use across various end-use industries, rising focus on improving fuel-efficiency of vehicles, and increasing demand for packaging materials. Increasing concerns and initiatives to reduce air pollution and environmental impacts due to automotive emissions is driving a steady shift towards Electric Vehicles (EVs). This trend is also leading to incorporation of more lightweight and high-performance components in vehicles, especially in automotive wires, which in turn would require novel formulations and materials such as masterbatch. Color coding of wires is essential as it helps in diagnosing electrical problems in a circuit. Color masterbatches are widely used for rapid color dilution, prevent insulation surface irregularities, and manage color intensity in vital manufacturing processes with constantly increasing speed of production and reducing extruder length and thickness of insulation.
