WASHINGTON, DC, USA, March 16, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Liles Parker PLLC is pleased to announce that Michael Cook has been reelected to serve another term as Chair of the Virginia Board of the Department of Medical Assistance Services (DMAS Board).

The DMAS Board oversees and advises the agency that is responsible for Virginia's Medicaid program, which currently provides care to more than 1.75 million Virginians and is especially critical during this time of the COVID pandemic. Michael was first appointed to the Board in 2015 by Governor McAuliffe and was reappointed by Virginia's current Governor Northam. After serving as an active, contributing member of the DMAS Board, he was elected as Chair by his fellow Board members. Most recently, he was reelected to serve a third term as Chair. We extend our enthusiastic congratulations to Michael for his extraordinary public service.

Michael is an "AV" rated lawyer with more than 35 years of experience representing a wide variety of health care related clients in regulatory, compliance, coverage, reimbursement, policy, strategic planning, government relations, and business matters. This experience includes managing the health care practices in the Washington, DC offices of several large national and international law firms. Michael began his career representing the Federal regulators of the Medicare and Medicaid programs as an attorney with the Office of General Counsel of the United States Department of Health and Human Services – often on significant matters of the highest profile and sensitivity. During his tenure at the Department, he also served as a Special

Michael Cook, JD
