In the past five years, publicity in social media has been growing at a good pace. The beauty business has been affected by the most commonly utilized social media platforms such as Facebook and Instagram. Social media platforms are utilized to market numerous items and services daily. Celebrity approval is a vital element influencing consumers to purchase goods that their favorite celebrity endorses. Celebrities affiliated with particular cosmetic companies float their social media support posts. Since the target audience of such famous accounts is large, the global reach of such brand approvals is straight to the customer. The rising usage of social media to support beauty goods drives the expansion of the market for face rollers to a large degree.

Consumer rank's convenience as the topmost priority while making buying decisions. Double stone facial rollers are proving to be the most convenient for consumers. Medium and small stone attachment on facial rollers has changed the scenario in the usage as consumers can use both the stones for different areas on the face. Jadestone facial rollers are high as consumers find them more beneficial than other rollers.

Dermatologist acknowledging the benefits of using facial rollers has an impact on the consumers. Consumers are influenced by the statement of the dermatologist and the demand for facial rollers has increased. The surge in demand will result in the growth of the facial rollers market.

Changes in lifestyle, rapid urbanization, and daily grooming habits have increased the demand for facial roller over the past few years. The importance of facial health has majorly influenced the increased usage of the facial roller, forcing the companies to level up their production.

The key market players profiled in the report include Shiffa Dubai Skincare Cosmetics LLC, Nurse Jamie, Inc., Paris Presents, Inc., Atahana, Town & Anchor, Province Apothecay, Mount Lai, Esker Beauty, Ginger Skincare, and Herbivore Botanicals

The advent of the global pandemic, COVID-19, has affected the facial rollers market positively. A facial roller is a personal skin-care product that improves blood circulation in face and soothes the skin. During the ongoing pandemic, consumers have grown increasingly aware of their health and expect a healthy lifestyle. The rise in number of people who have a healthy routine and frequent face workout has stimulated the worldwide sales of facial rollers.
