

Charis Bible College to Hold Spring Musical, David: The King of Jerusalem

Performance dates: April 8-10, 2022

WOODLAND PARK, COLORADO, UNITED STATES, March 17, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- David: The King of Jerusalem premiered at Charis Bible College in 2018. Reappearing this year as the college's spring production, David: The King of Jerusalem offers three showings: April 8 at 7 p.m. and two matinees on April 9 at 1 p.m. and April 10 at 3 p.m.

The musical, written and co-directed by Elizabeth and Robert Muren, portrays how on the eve of a royal banquet in Jerusalem, an elderly King David prepares to choose a successor from among his sons. A sinister conspiracy comes to light that threatens his kingdom and forces the king to flee his city, relying on God as he had in his younger days.

This musical production features a cast of over eighty members of actors, singers, and dancers from Charis Bible College. The songs are written by Elizabeth and Robert Muren, and the musical score is produced by Swedish Charis producer, Jakob Olofsson.

Guests and community are welcomed to visit Charis for the annual Spring Market, featuring local handmade and hand-crafted goods. The market is free and open to before, during, and after each showing.”

Eileen Quinn, Public Relations Manager

Elizabeth and Robert Muren have cowritten and produced several musicals previously performed in the 3,150-seat auditorium at Charis Bible College, including God with Us, Esther: The Queen of Persia, The Heart of Christmas, and In God We Trust, a musical celebrating Independence Day.

This year's spring musical, David: The King of Jerusalem, takes the audience on a journey through David's life from being a young shepherd boy in Bethlehem to being the King of Israel. Powerful musical numbers, large dance scenes, and dramatic film backgrounds create a spectacular experience for young and old alike.

In addition to the musical production, guests and the community are welcomed to visit Charis for the annual Spring Market, featuring local handmade and hand-crafted goods. The Spring Market is free and open to all before, during, and after each showing of the musical.
