

GrandCare Announces Transportation Services For Its Patients

GrandCare Health Services, in-home orthopedic rehabilitation specialist, announces the additional service offering of transportation through Uber Health.

PASADENA, CA, UNITED STATES, March 18, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ --

GrandCare Health Services, the leading provider of in-home orthopedic rehabilitation in Southern California, is proud to announce that it is now able to offer transportation services for its patients.

GrandCare's partnership with Uber Health provides HIPAA compliant, reliable and safe transportation to patients. GrandCare is focused on providing high-quality, convenient care to patients and this new service offering sharpens that strategic focus.

Dr. David Bell, CEO commented "This partnership moves us toward our strategic goal of raising the bar for in-home orthopedic rehabilitation. We specialize in providing excellent peri-operative care for knee and hip patients, and safe, reliable transportation is a key component of that care."

About GrandCare Health Services
