

Dr. Lillie Coley Files Another NJ Ethics Grievance Against Same Attorney in High Profile Case involving False Statements

Attorneys in High Profile Case Allegedly Using Court's Legal System to Carry Out Unethical Acts Towards Minorities and Women - No Rule of Law

PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, March 21, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Dr. Lillie M. Coley through sources state she has filed another New Jersey Ethics Grievance Compliant against Defense Attorney Kenneth L. Winters in Florham Park, NJ of Jardim, Meisner & Susser, P.C. Law firm.

Information available to the court and public establishes a good faith belief that this attorney along with Lise Fisher Hark may have engaged in unethical acts and that court's legal system was used in furtherance of these activities.

Apparently, some charges have been filed based in the Camden County Municipal database.

Other parties consist of Rymir Satterthwaite and Shawn Carter aka Jay Z.

Attorneys cannot promote, encourage or participate in any statements that are not true in the court room as Officers of the Court.

The New Jersey Ethics Board director, William B. Ziff is keeping a close look at the case base on some prior concerns.

The overarching goal of the attorney disciplinary system is to protect the public from unfit lawyers and to promote public confidence in the legal system. A grievance is initially handled by the DEC Secretary.

“The Supreme Court of New Jersey has held that persons who file grievances “may speak publicly regarding the fact that a grievance was filed, the content of that grievance, and the result of the process.” Rule 1:20-9(h) R.M. v. Supreme Court of New Jersey, 185 N.J. 208 (2005). This grievance is Civil Law matter under case no. L-4749-14
