

Best Press Release Writing Company Comms Factory Surpasses 5,000 Views on YouTube Channel

Videos share tips on writing and pitching press releases

CLEVELAND, UNITED STATES, March 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Comms Factory, the best press release writing service, today announced that its YouTube channel has surpassed 5,000 views. The YouTube channel videos discuss all things related to publicity for entrepreneurs and small- and midsize businesses.

"This channel is all about helping your company, product or service get publicity for your business," said CEO and Founder Hugh Taylor. "We help you to do public relations for yourself, without having to hire an expensive PR firm. On our Comms Factory YouTube channel, you'll find videos about how to write a press release, how to pitch the media about your company and how press release distribution works. If you have any questions about promoting your business in the media, you'll find everything you need on our channel."

Comms Factory's mascot, a guinea pig named S'mores the Public Relations Piggy, also adds her professional opinion and valuable advice on topics such as "How long should a press release be?" and "Do press releases get you backlinks for Search Engine Optimization?"
