

Gray, Gray & Gray and GraVoc Announce Cybersecurity Services Collaboration

Expanded security services comes at crucial time in battle against cyberattack and ransomware

CANTON, MA, USA, March 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gray, Gray & Gray, LLP, a consulting, business advisory and accounting firm based in Canton, MA, and GraVoc Associates, Inc., a Peabody-based IT consulting firm, have announced a collaborative venture to provide advanced cybersecurity services to organizations across all industry segments.

The alliance between Gray, Gray & Gray and GraVoc will provide the technological skills and resources to deliver a full slate of cybersecurity services, include multi-layered defense, end-point protection, secure backup, remote monitoring, employee training and testing, and compliance services to ensure clients are meeting the requirements of state, federal and international data security laws.

The outsourced cybersecurity risk management services provided by Gray, Gray & Gray and GraVoc use the latest cyber detection and defense technologies, which are continually updated to meet the latest threats. This extends to business recovery and business continuity planning and preparation in the event a data breach or cyberattack occurs.

“The risk of a data breach, ransomware attack, or malware insertion continues to grow exponentially for businesses of all sizes. Half measures and ‘out of the box’ remedies no longer provide the level of protection required by increasingly more sophisticated threats,” said James DeLeo, Leading Partner at Gray, Gray & Gray. “Cybersecurity has become an issue of risk management for all organizations. Our alliance with GraVoc allows us to deliver an effective outsourced solution to this difficult problem.”
