

Six Brothers Beef Company Stepped Up Efforts to Protect Lives and Livelihoods During the Covid-19 Pandemic

DALLAS, TEXAS, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, March 23, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Six Brothers Beef Company has been at the forefront in supporting communities devastated by the COVID-19 pandemic. The gourmet meat and seafood delivery service have donated over 5,000 pounds of beef and chicken to needy families and organizations across the United States. The company has also donated a range of items for charitable raffles geared to support various causes.

These are challenging times that call for action-centered business leadership in mitigating the impact of the coronavirus on people's lives and livelihoods. "

Chan Hensley

Chan Hensley, President Six Brothers Beef Company, said, "These are challenging times that call for action-centered business leadership in mitigating the impact of the coronavirus on people's lives and livelihoods. It's great to see local businesses coming out to supplement what the government and health institutions are doing to manage the situation.

We hope that our donation of meat and other essential items will go a long way in protecting people's lives and cushioning the community against the ravages of this pandemic."
