

WFG National Title Insurance Presents Prevention of Cyber & Real Estate Fraud Award to Kevin Tacher, Independence Title

Spark22 is the one of the largest and premier sales, marketing, and technology event for title agents across the country.

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, March 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Spark22 is the one of the largest and premier sales, marketing, and technology event for title agents across the country. The most talked about topic from attendees was in connection to real estate fraud and cyber fraud prevention.

Pat Stone the Executive Chairman & Founder of WFG National Title Insurance Company presented one of the highest recognitions a title agent could receive to Kevin Tacher the Founder & CEO of Independence Title in Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

Real Estate & Cyber Fraud Award

This was a one-of-a-kind award never given before, said Tacher. It was created specifically for him because of the above and beyond commitment to the protection of his customer, he continued to say.

This award was given to Tacher for going above and beyond in the prevention of cyber fraud and real estate fraud in Florida. Both from uncovering the Patricia Verlino story which was featured on NBC News South Florida and Fox News Channel in New York as well as the Miami Lot Stealing Scam as seen on NBC News South Florida.

Pat Stone the Executive Chairman & Founder of WFG National Title Insurance Company asked to personally present Tacher with this one-of-a-kind award on stage at Spark22 and wrote him an amazing handwritten personal note which read as follows:

"Kevin, thank you for all your involvement in helping to fight fraud in our industry. You go above and beyond and make us all look good. We are honored to have you as an agent of WFG National Title Insurance Company. Please let me know if I can ever help you in any manner. My Best! - Pat"

Tacher continued to say that being a great title agent is one thing, but being a former firefighter, he values his business model with going in every real estate deal together and he leaves the real estate deal together leaving no one behind just like he was trained in the fire academy.

He advised us that when choosing a title agent to close on your real estate transaction, you want to make sure you will close with someone who will fight for YOU when things don't go so smoothly. He advises his clients that who you close with matters most, so choose wisely!
