TEXARKANA, TX, UNITED STATES, May 2, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Infinet-I Workforce Solutions is a leader in online safety training anytime, anywhere. That experience is going into FMCSA registered ELDT theory curriculum to help the transportation industry meet new regulations for entry-level drivers.

Infinet-I's ELDT curriculum provides easy access for organizations providing entry-level training, with templates for required curriculum in Class B & A CDL, as well as school (S), passenger (P), and hazardous material (H) endorsements.

We know how important safety training is to meet regulations and keep your drivers safe. Infinet-I is dedicated to providing training you need to meet these goals and maintain regulatory compliance."

Jay Wommack, President & CEO

Infinet-I also has API integration with FMCSA's Training Provider Registry, so all completed certifications can be sent for you. The online training materials require less time to complete than traditional training options, so new drivers can get started quicker.

Best of all, all ELDT courses are provided as part of the Infinet-I training management system, so clients have no additional costs. There are also multi-license and individual ELDT course packages available for people who want to purchase just this theory training.
