

Da'Dude Da Wax UK's #3 Best Wax for 2022 Now in New Anti-Tamper Seal with QR Code

Da'Dude product line announces the new design for Da Wax packaging, featuring a new anti-tamper seal with QR Code.

LONDON, UK, April 8, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Da Dude has adapted an innovative anti-tamper seal for Da Wax - a hairstyle wax for men. The seal is unlike the usual circular seal that most products have. Customers will now know that the tub has not been opened before receiving it. This new seal assures that the product is safe and has not been tampered with.

Another feature of the new design is the QR code. Customers can scan the code and connect to the subscription system. Subscribing means receiving valuable information about hairstyling. Such as hints and tips so they can look their best. Customers will also receive discount offers. Likewise, they are given chances to exclusively try new products before it appears on the general market.

I am delighted that many demanding customers believe Da'Wax is the best wax they have ever used!”
