

Call Center Culture and The Secret Sauce of a Successful Phone Call, with Richard Blank

Welcoming an outsourcing industry leader expert for a brand new episode!

CHEYENNE, WYOMING , UNITED STATES, March 29, 2022
/EINPresswire.com/ -- From Passion To Purpose, To Changing People's Lives

Richard Blank, outsourcing industry leader and the CEO of Costa Rica's Call Center, joins Christian Montes for a brand new episode, where they discuss what makes a successful phone call, strong corporate culture and leadership, rocking engagement with gamification, to name a few themes.

Walking through those rows, I was getting that energy back from the people because they were putting into their project as much as I was giving to them.”

Richard Blank

Tune in for a new story, one of many twists and turns, while Richard is taking us along his fascinating journey of building and leading one of the largest BPOs of Central America.

They start discussing the beginning of Richard's call center journey, how his passion for Spanish, motivational public speaking and rhetoric became a big part of his career, followed by gamification and culture themes.

Richard Blank is the Chief Executive Officer of Costa Rica's Call Center and an outsourcing industry leader. At 27 years old, he started developing, building and training over 5000 employees for one of the largest call centers in Central America.

It's a pleasure to have him on season 2, episode 2 of First Contact: Stories of the Call Center. Here are some of the highlights they've touched upon in this episode:
