

(Video) - Iran: MEK Resistance Units celebrate Nowruz with anti-regime activities

Posters in Tehran called on Iranian youth to join the growing ranks of Resistance Units in their mission to keep alight the flame of rebellion against tyranny.

PARIS, FRANCE, March 24, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As Iranians mark the beginning of the new Persian calendar year and century, the mullahs' regime has left very little for Iran's people to celebrate and be joyful about.

From skyrocketing prices and rising inflation to the growing number of executions and the persecution of protesters and dissidents, the regime has done everything to wipe off the smiles from the faces of Iranians and hopes from their hearts.

In defiance of the suppression of the mullahs, members of the Resistance Units, the network of (PMOI/MEK) inside Iran, are celebrating the new year and century by reiterating their commitment to overthrow the regime and establishing freedom in Iran.

Adorned their tables with a message of hope for freedom and regime change, paying homage to the martyrs of the struggle for freedom, and expressing solidarity with the mothers of young protesters killed by regime security forces in recent years.

“I am eager for freedom. This year will be the year the mullahs’ regime is overthrown,” a Resistance Unit member said in her video message. “This will be the year we deliver the Iranian people from the tyrannical rule of the mullahs,” another Resistance Unit member said.
