

RecruitMilitary Partners with NVBDC's Military & Veteran Organization Task Force.

RecruitMilitary empowers veterans during the military-to-civilian transition with free resources and meaningful career opportunities.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, March 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- National Veterans Business Development Council (NVBDC) is excited to welcome RecruitMilitary as the newest member of its Military and Veterans Organization Task Force. RecruitMilitary's mission is to empower veterans, transitioning military, and military spouses to connect with America's top employers. The RecruitMilitary team is comprised of veterans and military family members as well as industry-experienced civilians, allowing them to serve as subject matter experts for both sides of the military hiring equation.

Tim Best, CEO, RecruitMilitary

“The military community often faces challenges transitioning into the job market, generally due to a misunderstanding of how military skills translate to civilian job requirements. RecruitMilitary bridges that gap,” said Tim Best, RecruitMilitary CEO, and former U.S. Army Special Operations attack helicopter pilot. “Our partnership with NVBDC MVO Task Force allows us to reach more veterans and demonstrate how their military skills matter in the civilian job market.”

Tim Best, CEO, RecruitMilitary

RecruitMilitary connects the nation's top employers to military job seekers through an infrastructure built specifically for the military community as they navigate the job search process. Their services include contingency recruiting, in-person and virtual career fairs, a job board, employer branding, and a military-centric publication, Search & Employ® magazine. These services are free of charge to the military community.

“RecruitMilitary’s work will be valuable to our other partners and their members,” said retired U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel Kathy Poynton, NVBDC Military & Veteran Organization Task Force Director. “Many of our partners work directly with transitioning and recently separated military personnel. Letting them know about RecruitMilitary might make that transition smoother.”

The Military and Veteran Organization Task Force enables NVBDC to collaborate resources with task force partners to increase awareness and establish a respected position in the industry supporting veteran business success.

About NVBDC

NVBDC is the original veteran-owned business certification organization developed by veterans for veterans. The purpose is to provide a credible and reliable certifying authority for all businesses, ensuring that valid documentation exists of a veteran’s status, ownership, and operational control.
