Anthony Mongeluzo, CEO, PCS

“I am honored to join the Southern New Jersey Development Council,” Mongeluzo said. “It is a dynamic organization that never ceases to find a way to engage top leadership in our area for the good of all residents and businesses in South New Jersey. I hope to contribute my experience and entrepreneurial spirit to the board as we work together to chart a positive economic course filled with opportunity.”

PCS is a national, award-winning I.T. consulting and service firm providing I.T. solutions for businesses. It has offices in six states N.J., PA, DE, MD, VA and N.Y.

“No one has all the innovative ideas,” said Mongeluzo. “However, by working collaboratively, the Council improves the business climate in south New Jersey and acts as a stimulus for more significant economic opportunities for everyone,” Mongeluzo said.

Key leaders and decision makers from the public and private sector comprise the Council. It represents organizations among 30 broad business types, including casino/gaming industry development, education, engineers, the health care industry, transportation, and tourism. It describes itself as south New Jersey’s “unified voice for progress.”
