Atlantic International Capital's Digital Asset Group announces expansion of yachting industry crypto payment program at 40th Palm Beach International Boat show

BOCA RATON, FL, UNITED STATES, March 25, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AIC Digital Assets Group expands its cryptocurrency payment program to create new opportunities for Yacht buyers, sellers, and brokers to use digital cryptocurrencies to transact business and access a new market segment on a global basis

Boca Raton, Florida: March 25, 2022

Atlantic International Capital's Digital Asset Group announces it's expanding its cryptocurrency payments program by customizing solutions and offering timely KYC, the ability to transact large purchases and provide immediate liquidity all by a regulated and licensed financial institution and Bank. AIC'S Digital Asset group offers a non-fintech program that is a regulated, safe, secure and insured solution that is required when dealing with larger transactions. AIC also has the resources to assist in bringing buyers and sellers together and expand the market by adding additional liquid digital currencies to transact.

AIC Chief Executive Officer, Richard Iamunno stated " After completing our recent agreement with @MonacoMarineManagment (M3), participating in this week's @U.S.Superyacht Summit, and as we start the @PalmbeachIntenationalboatshow we have decided that the Yachting industry is an ideal business sector to access the rapidly growing cryptocurrency luxury high-end buyers market. Through our partner bank and regulated digital asset financial institution, we offer the only non-fintech seamless crypto payment solution. When transactions are made in high value amounts a timely KYC and safe & secure transaction for both buyer and seller are key components to closing business. While non-regulated fintech platforms may be a simple solution for smaller transactions they fall short when larger purchases are required. Our goal is to mainstream and expand the use of these digital currencies when it comes to boat & yacht sales as well as charters and to remove the challenges while accessing a new larger opportunity.
