Brilliant Miller Headshot

In this interview on the School for Good Living podcast, Phil joins Brilliant to discuss becoming a decision catalyst — someone who can effectively change “maybe” to “yes” by using effectively choosing their words. Phil has a variety of “magic words” with a certain purpose that can have an incredible impact. Along with sharing some of his magic words and their meaning, he also explains how they can help people make up their minds. He also shares several ways to serve others through your work and through your writing. Phil is

Change your words, change your world.”

Phil M Jones

passionate about words, and he shares a lot of ways choosing the right ones can be a key to good living.

Topics Discussed:

- Using magic words to help people make up their mind
- Asking questions with empathy and curiosity
- Being a decision catalyst
- Understanding how the enemy of “yes” isn’t “no”, it’s “maybe”
- Overcoming rejection and setbacks
- Writing with a purpose
