

IADA Accepts XO as an Accredited Dealer

FORT LAUDERDALE, FLA. , USA, March 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Leading private aviation provider XO has gained accreditation as a member of the International Aircraft Dealers Association (IADA).

XO is part of Vista, a private aviation network integrating a unique portfolio of companies offering asset-light flying solutions covering all key aspects of private flight. XO's goal is to structure a turnkey program with IADA to safeguard its members' assets while enhancing the benefits of aircraft ownership.

In 2021, XO executed 34 buying and selling transactions of preowned aircraft, showing it to be well suited to handle the needs of any client across any and all aircraft types. XO has aggressive growth plans for 2022 and beyond as well, with the intention of strengthening the group owned and managed fleets with new and preowned aircraft.

We are excited to share our passion of building intuitive technologies and applying data to enrich the travel of our clients with the IADA network”

Lynn Fischer, Chief Marketing Officer at XO

“The IADA board of directors extends a wholehearted welcome to XO into the world's only organization of accredited dealers and certified brokers,” said IADA Executive Director Wayne Starling. “Our members look forward to continuing their relationships with this outstanding company of professionals.”

“XO's unique offerings can provide IADA members with the ability to leverage the resources of XO, while helping its members to find new aircraft buyers and to provide supplementary access to aircraft between transactions,” said Lynn Fischer, Chief Marketing Officer at XO. “We are excited to share our passion of building intuitive technologies and applying data to enrich the travel of our clients with the IADA network.”

About the International Aircraft Dealer Association

IADA is a professional trade association formed more than 30 years ago, promoting the growth and public understanding of the aircraft resale industry. IADA now offers the world's only accreditation program for dealer organizations and the only certification program for individual brokers. The process delivers lofty standards of ethical business practices and transparency regarding aircraft transactions, leading to a more efficient and reliable marketplace. For more info go to www.iada.aero.

IADA's dealer organizations and individual brokers do business in more than 100 countries. They consist of the top seven percent of the world's aircraft dealers. IADA members participate in a program of ongoing education to remain current on best practices and new developments in acquiring and selling business aircraft, as well as abiding by a strict code of ethics, integrity and transparency. IADA represents a variety of IADA verified product and aviation services that also operate with the highest professional standards in the industry.

About AircraftExchange.com

A popular product of IADA is AircraftExchange, the only site where every aircraft listed for sale is represented by an accredited dealer. To earn accreditation, IADA dealers must meet our accreditation standards, receive sponsorship from current IADA Accredited Aircraft Dealers and undergo a formal review process. IADA Accredited Aircraft Dealers agree to adhere to a strict code of ethics that ensures fully transparent transactions between IADA dealers and aircraft buyers.

The AircraftExchange search portal enables organizations to create a confidential dashboard of business jets for sale, filtered based on their features and amenities, aircraft class, age, and price. Users can browse through data-rich listings for some of the most popular aircraft manufacturers, including Embraer, Cessna, Bombardier, and Gulfstream jets. For more info about AircraftExchange, go to www.AircraftExchange.com.
