We are extremely grateful to work with Nathalie Dubois, President and CEO of DPA and be a part of the innovative drive up gifting event. "I choose the Beach Sandy sand remover brush kit as I thought everybody will need these products. We all fight the sand when we go to the beach." Nathalie added "I loved the gift bags we compiled and each of these companies. We have remarkable products; It should give all our nominees some good vibes, and good spirits in this crazy time."

Beach Sandy founder, Sujata Eyrick, designer and nature lover has spent her life exploring beautiful beaches. Family, kindness, joy, freedom, fitness and being inclusive to all....these are the values that she wakes up to look for every day. Sujata's seaside passion has led her from the Hamptons, Virginia Beach to the Outer Banks, Isle of Palms and Miami on the East Coast. Malibu and Laguna Beach on the West, St. Barth's and various islands Caribbean, to all the beautiful beaches of the Hawaiian Islands, and even as far as the exotic South Pacific paradises of Bora Bora and Huahine.

Time spent at the beach and coastlines overlooking majestic bodies of water as waves crash and seagulls fly have brought an element of sea therapy into Sujata's life. The fresh air by the sea and the profound effect it has on health, wellbeing along with a dose of peace and science of blue mind, is the driving force that inspired her company.
