relationships with your clients through the power of promotional products.

Save An Angel's mission is to end pet overpopulation by providing lifesaving care to homeless and at-risk animals. Originally based in Austin with recent expansion to Louisiana, the organization is committed to proactively improving the quality of life for pets and increasing pet retention by empowering communities with the education and resources needed to care and provide for their companions.

The steel tumbler cups donated by Create A Good Vibe were used for Save An Angel's Mardi Gras Pawty fundraiser on February 26, 2021. As a proud member of the Advertising Specialty Institute with over 26 years of experience in advertising, Christine Morris, knew exactly which personalized promotional products would work best for the non-profit. "The cups, which feature Save An Angel's logo, created a huge opportunity for the non-profit organization to boost their identity within Louisiana," she says. "The results greatly benefitted the organization as the tumblers were purchased by members of the organization and pet owners as well. The animals from Save An Angel were either abandoned, discarded at shelters, or living in abusive environments. We support Save An Angel's mission is to rescue the animals from these conditions and nurse them back to health. Through the use of promotional products, more people will learn about this wonderful organization, and more animals will be united with new families." Morris believes in the power of promotional items. "Mugs, pens, and t-shirts are memorable and provide a better cost per impression for advertisers than almost every major marketing effort like TV, magazines, and the Internet," she adds.
